

If the State of Indiana wants to provide an avenue for greater protections to its citizens than the federal standard, then you should support these protections as an agent of the People. DO NOT rule against Indiana in this matter.